Dear Parent/ Carer

Re: After-School Table Tennis Club

I have recently been approached by an external table tennis coach who would like to set up a weekly club for students at Stanground Academy. He already delivers coaching at other schools in the city and has developed many students to improve their skills with success.

As this is a club led by an external provider, it does come at a cost. This is different to regular sports clubs we have at the Academy, however this would still be a club your child would gain a lot from in terms of their enjoyment and skill level.

Any questions should be posed to Martin himself (his email address can be found on the attached letter).

Yours faithfully

Mr Colledge
