Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Stanground Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- Raising the concern or complaint in person, by telephone or in writing to the head of centre

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- The Exams Office

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 working days

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- Complete and return a complaints form

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 2 working weeks

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- follow the centre's internal appeals procedure and complete and return an internal appeals form

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 working days

The appeal will be referred to:

- the head of centre, as detailed in the centre's internal appeals procedure

It will be the responsibility of the head of centre as detailed in the centre's internal appeals procedure to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
